To: All Producers
Date: December 24, 2009
Subject: Separate New Business Applications
Effective: Immediately

We have revised our existing new business application and created two separate application forms for dwelling (cfp-1b), and commercial fire submissions (cfp-1c).

These forms, along with the separate application needed for Businessowners Policy (BOP) submissions, are now available on our website (www.cfpnet.com), and can be obtained by clicking on the Download Forms link under the Producer tab.

We will no longer accept the older, combined version of our dwelling/commercial application as of February 1, 2010. Please advise everyone in your office of this change.

You should be aware that utilizing our online system for dwelling and commercial fire submissions increases your office efficiency, and eliminates the need to use paper applications.
